

3. Spousal Consent

Community or marital property state laws may require spousal consent for a nonspouse beneficiary designation. The laws of the state in which the financial organization is domiciled, the HSA owner resides, the trust is located, the spouse resides, or this transaction is consummated should be reviewed to determine if such a requirement exists. Spousal consent for the beneficiary designation may also be required by financial organization policy.

(HSA Owner Initials) I Am Married. I understand that if I designate a primary beneficiary other than my spouse, my spouse must consent by signing below.

(HSA Owner Initials) I Am Not Married. I understand that if I marry in the future, I must complete a new Designation of Beneficiary form, which includes the spousal consent documentation.

I am the spouse of the HSA owner. Because of the significant consequences associated with giving up my interest in the HSA, the custodian/trustee has not provided me with legal or tax advice, but has advised me to seek tax or legal advice. I acknowledge that I have received a fair and reasonable disclosure of the HSA owner's assets or property, including any financial obligations for a community property state. In the event I have a legal interest in the HSA assets, I hereby give to the HSA owner such interest in the assets held in this HSA and consent to the beneficiary designation set forth in this form.

Additional Information

Purpose. The Health Savings Account (HSA) Designation or Change of Beneficiary Form is designed to assist you in selecting or changing the current beneficiary designation of your HSA.

Additional Documents. Applicable law or policies of the HSA custodian/trustee may require additional documentation. In the event you want to name additional primary or contingent beneficiaries, your custodian/trustee may allow you to attach additional beneficiary designations in a format acceptable to the custodian/trustee.

For Additional Guidance. It is in your best interest to seek the guidance of a tax or legal professional before completing this document because of the potentially significant financial and estate planning consequences. You should also reference the HSA agreement and disclosure statement and/or amendments provided by the custodian/trustee.

For more information, refer to Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 223, other relevant IRC sections, and all additional Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidance; IRS publications that include information about HSAs; instructions to your federal income tax return; or the IRS's web site at www.irs.gov.

Terms. A general understanding of the following terms may be helpful in completing your transactions.

Primary Beneficiary. A primary beneficiary is the recipient of HSA assets upon the death of an HSA owner.

Contingent Beneficiary. A contingent beneficiary is a secondary beneficiary who is the recipient of HSA assets if all primary beneficiaries predecease an HSA owner.
